

Tackling Ethnic Minority Unemployment: Improving Job Outcomes and Sharing Good Practice

Background to event:

The Department for Work and Pensions are sponsoring a number of regional events to consider how best to tackle Ethnic Minority Unemployment. Jobcentre Plus, the East Midlands Regional Improvement and Efficiency Partnership, Government Office for the East Midlands and the BME Alliance for the East Midlands are supporting two events in the East Midlands. This event is for BME voluntary and community organisations that have a key role in tackling ethnic minority unemployment.

Purpose of event:

This is a challenging area which requires strong partnership work to address the issues more effectively. The challenge is made harder by the recession which, from previous experience, will have a bigger impact on ethnic minorities. The key purpose of this event is to gather good practice and share this with Local Authorities especially where there is the potential for greater collaboration.

We hope that you agree that there are big economic and social benefits in working together to improve ethnic minority employment, and that this seminar will provide you with a valuable opportunity to meet and hear from successful practitioners, share experiences and inform the work that Local Authorities do in this area.
